Colorado Residency Information

You have indicated you are currently in high school in Colorado. You do not need to provide information on this page. Please click Continue.

In-state tuition eligibility requires one year of Colorado domicile (legal residence). Exceptions to the one year required can be proved for special circumstances (Please see the Colorado Residency link below to review information regarding special circumstances). If you think you meet any of these exemptions, please contact the Office of the Registrar to determine eligibility or for any other residency related questions.

Suspension and Criminal History

The University of Colorado Denver values the success of every student as well as providing a safe environment for the university community. Understanding the life stories of each student is an important aspect of this process. Please note that any previous criminal history convictions will NOT automatically disqualify you from consideration, but rather helps us to understand your life story and make a more informed admission decision.

(Required fields are denoted with *)

*Have you ever been suspended, expelled, or required to withdraw from a high school, college or university due to behavioral or academic misconduct?

Please note, academic misconduct does not include probation or suspension for low grades.

☐ Yes

☐ No

*Do you have a pending criminal charge OR have you ever been convicted of a crime, made a plea of guilty, accepted a deferred judgment, been adjudicated or been required to register as a sex offender?

☐ Yes

15. Next, review & revise any errors that this section pulls up. If you have incomplete information from any of the sections, it will show here in a list. Once that information is filled out, the page should look like this and have a “Submit Application” button.

Select “Submit Application” to finish

Congrats on submitting your non-degree online application! In 5-10 business days, you will receive an email from Admissions with your CU Student ID. Save this information alongside your university log in credentials.
